

Cyber Security Policy

“With complete advantage of information and communications security technology, an effective and comprehensive cyber security protection mechanism is constructed to ensure the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of information assets.”

Cyber Security Policy Statement

TDCC is the professional securities service provider of central depository, book-entry, clearing-settlement, and bills central depository clearing-settlement. To adhere to the quality principle of “constructing professional, efficient, and internationalized mechanism as well as providing secure, convenient, and diversified services,” and to meet the expectation and requirement of the company’s cyber security maintenance, TDCC will base on the cyber security policy, build on the need for organization development, and take into account information asset risks to construct a comprehensive, feasible, and effective cyber security management system to perfect the protection of the company’s cyber security.